

REDEFINING THE FIRE WITHIN.

One of the most remarkable features inside every home at The Enclaves, A Ritz-Carlton Reserve Residence are the outdoor areas, carefully designed to unveil the allure of the fire throughout your residence.

Being in the presence of fire besides experiencing a unique hypnotizing effect, results in an appreciation of an incomparable warmth that enriches the heart and soul.

The design of The Enclaves, A Ritz-Carlton Reserve Residence, offers seamless spaces between the inside and outside where hearth features are presented in multiple ways depending on the different style of residence.

As the winter months arrive to the desert, and the temperature drops, the fire features will only extend the outdoor living season.

SINGLE FAMILY RESIDENCES

The Single-Family Residences at West Enclave and East Enclave, possess three different fire features inside the residence.

The courtyard, the heart of the bedrooms area, provides a cozy and intimate atmosphere in a modern and elegant hacienda style.

While on the other side of the residence, a fireplace bestows the warmth of the night in the outdoor living area and the fire pit located at the garden bears family and friends to connect around infinite stories and laughter.
